LEGISLATIVE ACTION ALERT

“RIGHT-TO-WORK” STOPPED DEAD IN ITS TRACKS

“Oooooo what kinda galoot would vote for right-to-work... some fur bearin' flat-footed varmint!”

DELAWARE, WE CARE PA CONFERENCE OF TEAMSTERS

(Delaware Feb. 7, 2018) General Teamsters Local 326 wants to thank all of the Local Unions in Joint Council 53, the Pennsylvania Conference of Teamsters and a special thanks to Teamsters Local 355 in fighting “Right to Work” in our most southern county. Local 355 has members in that county that were able to coordinate their efforts with that of the IBT and the Delaware AFL-CIO to fight off a vote to make Sussex County a “Right-to-Work” county. Through a concerted effort, “RTW” was stopped dead in its tracks in Sussex County.

Through pressure brought by all the Unions in Delaware and surrounding Conference areas, only the sponsor of ordinance, Ron Arlett (R), voted in favor of “Right-to-Work”.

We would like to extend a special thanks to Brother Denis Taylor and Brother John Caparatta of Local 355 for their unwavering support.

The Delaware AFL-CIO asked our Political Coordinators at the IBT to coordinate all the efforts from the other Unions and affiliates in a campaign to stop “Right-to-Work” in Sussex County.

Again, we wish to thank the IBT, Delaware AFL-CIO, Teamsters Joint Council No. 53, the PA Conference of Teamsters, Teamsters Local 355 and all Local Unions for their support.
