Supreme Court, with Gorsuch on bench, to hear big new challenge to labor unions

According to an online article from Fox News© The Supreme Court is taking a fresh look at the politically explosive issue of whether unions can force workers to pay dues – this time, with a conservative majority in place. The justices deadlocked 4-4 in a similar case last year. With Justice Neil Gorsuch since confirmed to the court, the justices agreed Thursday to again consider a free-speech challenge from workers who object to paying money to unions they don't support. To view and read article go to:
