LEGISLATIVE ACTION ALERT

THE GOOD THE BAD AND THE UGLY

The Good: Wagner's resignation means he can no longer harm labor with his anti-union voting record and stance on labor

The Bad: Wagner is running for Governor

The Ugly: If Wagner wins, labor will suffer immensely

Scott Wagner to resign from Senate to focus on bid to be Pa.'s next governor

By Jan Murphy May 30, 201

In an article from Pennlive®, staff writer Jan Murphy said that Sen. Scott Wagner will resign from his Senate seat on Monday to concentrate his efforts on unseating Gov. Tom Wolf in the November election. Wagner submitted a letter to Senate President Pro Tempore Joe Scarnati, R-Jefferson County, indicating his intention to depart from the Senate seat he has held representing York County for the past four years.

Gov. Wolf responded to the news, saying that Wagner's decision to resign "one week after skipping crucial votes to protect children in order to attend a political corporate policy summit, and one month before the budget deadline, proves that he is the very worst of Harrisburg."
