PA Senate Bill 870 Workers' Comp.

The “GRAND BARGIN” for Employers

The “GRAND LARCENY” for Teamsters

PA Senate Bill SB870 is being introduced by Sen. Dan Laughlin (Rep) from Erie. It appears he is moving to restore the "Grand Bargain" clause. The Legal Intelligencer states that the Grand Bargain Becomes the Grand Betrayal. Over 100 years ago, the Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Act was introduced to the Commonwealth. It was called the "grand bargain." The grand bargain resulted in the loss of the constitutional right of an injured worker to sue their employer in exchange for the certainty and guarantee of workers' compensation benefits consisting of a weekly check and payment of medical treatment.
